First Contact HR more than doubles its revenues for the second year in a row

First Contact HR (FCHR) projects continued growth at the current rate. FCHR continues to expand in volume and array of services, despite the looming recession. Principal Singletary remains optimistic based on a recent survey conducted which confirms a 94% satisfaction rating among clients, and his strong team of dedicated employees. Singletary's philosophy is that by hiring the right people from the start, FCHR is better able to focus on superior client service and quality.
